Two monochromes of Miss Anna Plume, 1780, Mr. Wm. Plume, 1785, are finely executed, as are those of Maj. Geo. W. Camp, 1875; Purser Edward Fitzgerald, 1815; Mr. Walter Herron, 1800;, and Prof. Richard Behan and wife, 1815. Among the Doyle collection.

Some most excellent miniatures are those of Dr. Richard Lamb, Mr. Robert Symington, Mr. John Newton Walke, Mre. Mary Tyler, this loaned by Miss Florence Smith, Mr. Thomas Dixon, Mr. John Marchant and Dr. Marchant, loaned by Miss Stark, Nathaniel Boush and Mr. and Mrs. Barnard and others,

WHIPCORD

Every man in Norfolk is "running" to THE HUB for those $10 FINE CUSTOM MADE WHIPCORD CHEVIOT SUITS, but they don't need a "policeman's club" to drive them there. Men have got more sense than that when "a good thing" is put before them-and it would be hard to find as "good things" in fine and stylish garments as the $10 WIIIPCORD CHEVIOT SUITS. $18 to $25 won't buy you better materials, nobbier styles or more perfect tailored suits -and you'd deserve to be "locked up" if you wasted that much money on suits that THE HUB gives you at half the price-$10. Trust in THE HUB and it will "pull" you through every time. Only ONE PRICE there-same price to man, woman and child-and if anything doesn't please you, ASK FOR YOUR MONEY, YOU WILL GET IT BACK RIGHT AWAY.

NORFOLK'S GRAND BUYING CENTER
